BRITAIN DIALS WINDSOR OUT

Baby's Story—Ronald Fletcher, eight and one-half months, soon learned life was tough, lonely. Day by day, he was left at home while his parents hunted work. But he was found, taken to Floating Hospital . . . where he now looks out upon the world . . . amazed at all this new kindness.

WINDSOR'S U. S. RADIO TALK BARRED IN BRITAIN

LONDON, May 8 (AP)—The British Broadcasting Corporation announced today it would not relay in England the broadcast the Duke of Windsor is to make tonight from Verdun, France, to the United States. The BBC gave no reason for its decision, reached after lengthy consideration. It said merely:

"The BBC announces that the talk which, by invitation of the National Broadcasting Corporation of America, the Duke of Windsor is to address to the United States this evening will not be broadcast in its (the BBC's) programs."

Some Britons, however, were expected to pick up the message of former King Edward VIII on short wave receivers. They have not heard the voice of their former sovereign since his famous abdication broadcast on December 11, 1936.

UNITY FREEMAN-MITFORD
Visits Fuehrer

MUNICH, May 8 (AP)—The Honorable Miss Unity Freeman-Mitford, British admirer of Chancellor Hitler, visited him at Obersalzberg over the week-end, it was learned today.

The tall English blonde was said by friends to have discussed the "political situation" with Hitler. It was recalled that she had met him several times during the Sudeten crisis last autumn.

(Miss Freeman-Mitford, 23, is a daughter of Baron Redesdale, British insurance magnate. An outspoken pro-Nazi, she has said she might become a German citizen.)

The National Broadcasting Company announced the speech could be heard on two European wave lengths.

The London Daily Express registered disapproval of the duke's broadcast to America at this time, suggesting that King George VI now should do all the talking to the United States.

CALLED POOR TASTE

The Express said:

"The decision of the Duke of Windsor to broadcast to the United States is to be regretted. The moment was unhappily chosen. The King is on his way to America and any word spoken to the United States at present should come from him.

"It would have been better, therefore, for the Duke to wait. "It is reported that the Duke will make an appeal for peace in his broadcast. Such an appeal would have been uttered more appropriately after the King's peace mission to the Dominion had been brought to a conclusion."

Windsor Talks Despite Criticism in England

VERDUN, France, May 8 (AP)—The Duke of Windsor this afternoon completed the text of his "appeal to reason" in international affairs, to be broadcast tonight to the United States.

He seemed determined to make his appeal, despite some advance criticisms. After numerous telephone calls between the duke's suite and London, a member of his party said the former ruler had a "very good reason" to proceed with his speech.

The Duke was informed that some British newspapers had criticized his plan to speak as "inopportune."

The Duke abandoned a tour of World War battlefields to write the speech at a country inn within the Verdun ring of forts.

Members of the Duke's party said the Duke and Duchess would return to Paris tomorrow "to resume their normal life." Some persons had believed the speech might be a pre-

Britain Leaves Danzig's Fate In Hands of Poles and Hitler

LONDON, May 8 (AP)—The British government dropped a guarded hint today to her new ally, Poland, that she would "welcome amicable settlement," possibly through arbitration, of Poland's quarrel with Germany over the free city of Danzig.

BANDITS HOLD UP WOMAN IN BACK BAY LOAN OFFICE

Two bandits today robbed a middle-aged woman and the manager of her loan company of $150 in a daring daylight holdup of their office in Massachusetts avenue, near St. Botolph street, Back Bay.

A thin youth leveled a revolver at Mrs. Sarah B. Martin, owner of the Uptown Loan Company, Inc., and Clifford Oakes, manager, just after the office had opened.

"This is a stickup—don't move," he snarled.

While his youthful accomplice moved toward the cash register, the gunman prodded his victims into the rear of the office. For more than a minute he held them at bay while the second bandit rifled the cash register.

Scores of pedestrians passed the shop, unimpressed by the robbery. No customers happened to enter.

The second youth motioned to the gunman as he pocketed the $150 and both backed slowly out of the store, then disappeared. The bandits were described as being about 25 years old and of less than average weight and height.

Sails to South Seas Alone in 32-Footer

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8 (AP)—George Priestly, 27, alone in a 32-foot sailboat, was on the high seas today, bound for Honolulu and Midway Island.

The daily salesman left yesterday saying he expected to return to San Francisco in about two months, completing a round-trip voyage.

Both Richard Butler, undersecretary for foreign affairs, and Prime Minister Chamberlain intimated to Commons that Britain would be ready to lend her good offices in establishing some form of international machinery to arbitrate the Danzig question, should Germany and Poland ask her to do so.

Butler said the future of Danzig was "primarily a matter for negotiation between parties to the Danzig settlement." The principal allied and associated powers undertook by the World War treaty of Versailles to establish Danzig as a free city under protection of the League of Nations.

In Commons Chamberlain also said the government was attempting to obtain fullest co-operation with Soviet Russia in its present policy. Negotiations are under way to bring Russia into the British-French lineup.

The House was in an uproar during discussion of the Soviet negotiations when Laborite Leader Attlee asked:

"Does the Prime Minister not realize that public opinion is disturbed by the contrast between the rapidity of acceptance of onerous obligations by this country and the dilatory methods in seeking for lateral security?"

The opposition cheered Attlee while government supporters shouted for Chamberlain when he replied:

"I do not agree there have been any dilatory methods."

NOT BRITAIN'S BUSINESS

In discussing the Danzig problem, Butler said: "The British government stands for settlement of international questions by friendly negotiation, arbitration or other peaceful means."

Hide Mystery Death From Youth's Mother

Whatever the findings of police in the mystery death of W. Bartlett Talmadge, Dorchester musician whose headless body was taken from the Charles River basin, fear and horror brooded over the Talmadge home at 235 Park street, Dorchester, today.

SHIPMATES SICK BUT KING, QUEEN ENJOY SEA TRIP

ABOARD THE LINER EMPRESS OF AUSTRALIA, May 8 (AP)—King George VI and Queen Elizabeth—both good sailors—are enjoying their voyage to Canada and the United States free of seasickness, which is more than some of their party could say.

The liner Empress of Australia, on her first full day out of Portsmouth, encountered a stiff breeze and did considerable pitching.

As a result there were several absences from the divine service in the liner's main dining room but the King and Queen were there in front, joining heartily in the responsive readings and singing.

Early today the liner and convoying warships ran into a haze and slowed from 17 to 12 knots. The squadron went into fog formation with the liner leading, followed in single file by the cruisers Southampton and Glasgow and the battle cruiser Repulse.

Visibility improved somewhat and normal speed was resumed two hours later. At 8 a. m. G. M. T. (4 a. m. E. D. T.) the squadron was 200 miles west of the Irish coast.

The congregation included the ship's officers, bluejackets, marines and members of Their Majesties' staff.

After the service the King and Queen walked along the deck, smiling and chatting with fellow passengers. The King wore a lounge suit, in blue with a white pin stripe and the Queen a salmon pink costume with suede shoes and a brown fur.

At noon the royal party donned lifebelts at a siren signal and lined up for inspection. From then almost until luncheon the King and queen sat on deck, enjoying the bright sunshine. In the afternoon Their Majesties rested and read.

There was no sermon at the divine service. Following the custom of the sea, the service was conducted by Capt. A. R. Meikle, while Purser D. F. Armour read the Scripture.

The captain asked blessings first for "Our most gracious sovereign lord, King George," and then for "Our gracious Queen Elizabeth."

Mrs. Jeanette Talmadge, the young man's aged mother, is stricken with hysteria, mounting in intensity since he disappeared last March 30. A belief that she should not have allowed him to leave the house that fateful night has added to her nervousness.

Because of fear that the shock of the grisly discovery in the Charles may kill her, all news of it is being kept away. Newspapers are being carefully clipped so that no word of the finding of the body comes to her eyes. A tube in the radio was purposely broken.

Betty Talmadge, 23, a sister, is blind—the strange physical reaction of a nervous breakdown suffered some years ago. And W. B. Talmadge she now is reported in a state of collapse.

Striving bravely to hold everything together is another sister, Madeline, and she, today, discussed with a reporter the circumstances of her brother's disappearance. She said she is convinced that he ended his life while temporarily out of his mind.

GLORIA VANDERBILT
Stricken, Rushed to Hospital

Gloria Vanderbilt, Famed Heiress, 15, Goes Under Knife

NEW YORK, May 8—Gloria Vanderbilt, court-embattled 15-year-old heiress, was rushed to Doctors' Hospital during the night and an emergency appendectomy was performed, it was learned today.

Physicians at the hospital today reported the rich little girl was "doing very well" following the operation.

Last night she was taken to the hospital from the Fifth avenue home of her aunt, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney. Gloria's mother, Mrs. Gloria Vanderbilt, is reported in Europe.

The girl returned from overseas only 10 days ago and was re-entered for Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Ct., but was obliged to withdraw because of illness.

Under a 1934 court order, two-sevenths of her time is allotted to Gloria's mother and five-sevenths to the wealthy aunt, Mrs. Whitney.

Connery Seeks Fever Heroes For War Honor

Seeking to find wartime Yankee Division veterans who volunteered in trench fever experiments during the war, Congressman Lawrence J. Connery of Lynn asked aid today of New England veterans.

The congressman has a bill before Congress to decorate these volunteers, of whom there are believed to be around 30 living in Greater Boston.

Some of those who volunteered to be subjects in trench fever experiments died, while others are still disabled from the effects of the germs.

Connery asks that any person knowing the identity and address of a trench fever volunteer communicate with him at Washington, as the information is necessary for success of his bill.

SON WAITS ICKES' WORD; MA-IN-LAW FORGIVES BRIDAL

PITTSBURGH, May 8 (INS)—Robert Harold Ickes, foster son of the Secretary of the Interior, and his bride, the former Marcella Charlotte Levine, were "at home" in Pittsburgh today with blessings from the bride's mother but no word as yet from Washington.

Young Ickes, at 25 a clerk in the Duquesne Light Company offices, was back on the job this morning following his surprise marriage Saturday night in Lisbon, O.

As soon as possible, he said, he plans to go to Washington to see his father.

"I haven't been able to contact Washington," he said, "but we received a nice telegram of congratulations from Marcella's mother."

Sent from Ennis, Tex., it read: "Wish both all happiness in world. God bless you both."

"MOTHER."

Ickes' one-way honeymoon was interrupted so he could return to work. He still believes in his father's advice—"A boy ought to get a job and make good at it."

For the time being, the young couple is living at a small East End hotel where Ickes had been staying. He said he planned to continue with his utility job but that otherwise, "our plans are very indefinite."

FAST FOREST FIRE SET

ONAWAY, Mich., May 8 (INS)—Believed the work of a pyromaniac, fire today swept through 10 miles of forest near here.

CUPID WINS OUT—Robert H. Ickes, 25, foster son of Harold L. Ickes, and the former Marcella Levine, 19, of Chicago, were honeymooning today after eloping to Lisbon, O. Her family opposed the romance for five years.

'BUREAU DRAWER' BABY WINS HEARTS OF NURSES

He's tiny, and frail, and he gazes at the world from old, matured-looking eyes—but that's always the way babies look when they haven't had enough to eat for a long time, the nurses say.

Killer Suspect, 22, Bets $5 He'll Hang

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 8 (INS)—Robert M. Burgunder, Jr., soft-spoken 22-year-old collegian son of a prominent Seattle, Wash., lawyer, expects to hang for the slaying of two Phoenix, Ariz., automobile salesmen, Chief Deputy Stewart of Washington County, Tenn., said today.

The boy even offered to bet $5 he would hang, Deputy Stewart said.

"They've got enough evidence at Phoenix to hang me for the murders," the officer quoted the boy as saying. "Sure I'll hang, but don't think I won't fight the case when I get there."

Whether the youth would call upon his father, Robert M. Burgunder, Sr., one-time prosecutor of King County, Wash., to defend him was not known.

Burgunder, who had been attending a teachers' college near Phoenix prior to the slaying of the two salesmen, was surrendered early today to two Arizona officers who sped to Knoxville by plane.

"One wrong word now might hang me," the youth coolly told Sheriff Sell, who arrested him as he was leaving a Johnson City, Tenn., church.

"I stole the car, but I am not guilty of murder."

An alarm for Burgunder was broadcast by Arizona authorities when, on May 5, the bodies of Jack Peterson and Ellis Koury, two auto salesmen who had driven off with the youth to demonstrate a new car, were found in an isolated spot near Phoenix.

He weighs just 12 pounds, not much for an eight and a half months old youngster.

He should weigh, say the nurses, at least 15 and his little bones seem strangely distorted.

That, say the nurses, is due to rickets, the thing that happens to babies when they don't get good, fresh milk, and lots of it.

But they love him, the nurses do, and they're doing everything they can to make him strong, and sturdy, and better equipped to fight life's battles when they begin.

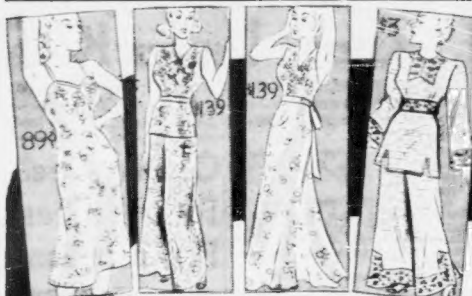

His mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fletener, from whose apartment in Columbus avenue, he was taken Saturday when he was found lying in a bureau drawer placed on the floor, are a little frightened by all the fuss and, now that it has all been explained to them, are eager for the nurses to fix him up.

It'll take time, say the nurses, quite a long time.

The baby's name is Ronald, and his parents explain, he had to stay in the bureau drawer alone all day because they were out looking for work.

They didn't mean to be unkind to him, because they love him, too. The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children is trying to work the whole thing out so everybody will be a little happier.

MADLINE E. SORRENS
Denies She's Missing

'Missing' Bride Just Resting With Mother

NEW YORK, May 8.—Police of eight states and no one knows how many foreign countries, not to mention the planets of the Universe, may be seeking Mrs. Madeline Eklund Sorrens, 22, blonde and beautiful bride of John Sorrens, Bronxville socialite, but she, herself, refuses to be lost.

"I'm not missing," she telephoned to newspapers today. "I'm just resting"—and her mother, Mrs. Karl Eklund of 160 Lexington avenue was just as emphatic. Young Sorrens, however, had asked for a police search, and had told reporters that she disappeared after telephoning to her mother to say: "I'm going into the country for a while."

That was April 24, and when she failed to return home, he called police. She, incidentally, is a former show-girl of the N. T. G. troupe, and once appeared on the road and in Boston with Ben Marden's Revue.

The dedicatory exercises were attended by 200 distinguished guests, including Governor Saltonstall, President Conant, the Harvard board of overseers and the Harvard Corporation.

Present as an honor guest and speaker was Lucius N. Littauer, New York multimillionaire who donated $2,500,000 to establish Harvard's Graduate School of Public Administration.

The school's new Littauer Center is a four-story granite structure, just to the north of Harvard square. Henry R. Shepley, Boston architect, presented the master key to President Conant today. He in turn presented it to Professor John H. Williams, dean of the school.

Dean Williams said the program of work at Littauer Center would be directed toward "larger problems of policy and administration with which modern governments are confronted."

O'Brien Sentence. Off Until May 16

Passing of sentence upon former Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere, was deferred today in superior court until 10 a. m., Tuesday, May 16.

Last Thursday the former mayor was found guilty by a jury of embezzling $13,275.04 from the city of Revere while he was city treasurer. Immediately after the sentence continuance had been granted. Assistant Attorney General John S. Derham conferred with Judge Frederick W. Fosdick in the latter's lobby.

PLAN NEXT TRIAL

As a result, Judge Lewis H. Goldberg, who sat in the embezzlement case, was assigned to sit also, beginning next Monday, in the cases against O'Brien and 33 others who are under indictment on conspiracy charges in connection with alleged gambling in Revere.

This trial will constitute a problem because of the small size of the courtroom, and it is believed special docks may be set up for the defendants.

Request for continuance of the sentence date was made in the crowded courtroom by defense counsel, James Brennan, and was granted by Judge Goldberg when Assistant Attorney-General Derham assented.

The request was made in order to give the defense more time to prepare its argument for a new trial, and Brennan pointed out also that there was no printing of the trial testimony available as yet.

O'Brien, following the brief session, left the courtroom with his wife and Miss Josephine Farrell, his secretary as city treasurer and as mayor.

She recently was ousted as city auditor of Revere. O'Brien was found guilty of one charge of embezzlement of $13,275.04 by a jury last Thursday in a sealed verdict.

The jury found him not guilty on two other embezzlement counts and not guilty on three counts of larceny.

SPELLMAN THANKS COUNCIL

Members of the Boston city council received a note of thanks today from Archbishop Francis J. Spellman, who wrote that he deeply appreciated "sentiments expressed in a city council resolution, two weeks ago, congratulating him on his appointment."

The resolution was offered by City Councilor William A. Carey of Roxbury, Monday, April 24, the day the elevation of Archbishop Spellman was made public.

The council passed the resolution unanimously. Archbishop Spellman's note today was written on stationery of the Sacred Heart Rectory, Newton, it read:

"To the members of the City Council, City Hall, Boston, Mass. Gentlemen:

"I am deeply grateful to you for your gracious act on the occasion of my appointment to the archbishopric of New York.

"The kindly sentiments expressed in your resolution are deeply appreciated. Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) "F. J. SPELLMAN."

$1.50 Tax Drop Scheme Studied

A reduction of more than $1.50 in the average tax rate of 351 cities and towns loomed today in a report to the Legislature by the joint committee on ways and means, calling for the distribution of $19,200,000 to communities from the state highway fund.

The amount is $9,200,000 greater than Governor Saltonstall had planned for the biennial budget now under consideration. Under the proposal, the state would not get back from the federal government any of the $14,000,000 which motorists will pay to Washington through the federal gasoline tax. Cities and towns would be required to use the $19,200,000 in the next two years on highway work.

With them were the seven teachers of the school where Catherine was an eighth-grade pupil, and the principal, Edward Anderson.

Pall-bearers were roommates, Leonard Bjorklund, Harold Hall, John Thompson, Perry Wise, Harry Ward and Warren Smith.

Bishop Rice Confirms 310

Urging those to whom he ministered to be "always loyal to your country and your God," Bishop William A. Rice of British Honduras, recently elevated to the bishopric, today confirmed 290 boys and girls and 10 converts at the Church of St. Andrew the Apostle, Forest Hills.

He was assisted at the ceremonies by Rev. Patrick Durcan, pastor of the church; Rev. Daniel McDonald and Rev. Charles Foley. The girls in the group were sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Norton, the boys by Charles Foley.

Youth Admits 4 School Breaks

It kept him pretty busy, but he managed to make it all in one day.

That's what James Byrnes, 21, of Howard avenue, Roxbury, admitted in effect today when he pleaded guilty to breaking into four different schools, three in Boston, one in Northbridge, all in a period of a few hours.

Judge Franklin W. L. Miles held him in $5000 bail for the grand jury, and held Richard F. Rosemeyer, 22, of Bainbridge street, Roxbury, in a like amount, although the latter pleaded not guilty.

Rob Policeman's Home in Roxbury

Sergeant John Laidlaw of the Hyde Park station had a little personal police work to do today in Roxbury.

It was at his own home on Burgess street, where thieves forced a cellar door and stole $11 in cash and $125 worth of jewelry.

Woman Here Awaits Test of Silent Plane

A retiring California housewife today awaited in Charlestown a summons from the War Department to demonstrate in Washington what may prove the most formidable weapon yet added to the air forces of the United States.

Mrs. Laura Bosquit, formerly of Houlton, Me., and now a resident of California, is staying with her sister, Mrs. Samuel W. Adams, at the latter's home in Cross street, Charlestown.

SECRET IS GUARDED

She expects the summons from Washington within two days, she disclosed, to demonstrate her idea for a silent airplane, the plans for which are already in the archives of the War Department.

Secret agents for foreign powers have besieged Mrs. Bosquit with proposals to gain possession of an invention which would give any nation preponderant advantage in the air, the motherly inventor revealed.

When she crossed the county by train to deliver her invention to army officials, a foreign agent made his last attempt to gain possession of the plans.

"The agent was on the same train, in fact in the same car. But I knew the conductor, and both he and the porter kept an eye on the man, so I had no fear of harm from that source," she revealed.

INVENTED WHILE ILL

Mrs. Bosquit was not at liberty to reveal details of her invention, now a closely guarded army secret, except to describe its potentialities in general.

A plane equipped with this invention could not be heard as it passed several hundred feet overhead with throttle wide open. Gasoline consumption is cut almost in half, and flying speed is increased by one-third, it was said.

The dread menace of fire is impossible, Mrs. Bosquit revealed with a smile.

The idea of a silent airplane was born of weeks of suffering after a paralytic shock, when Mrs. Bosquit was confined to her California home on crutches and took up the study of electricity as a pastime.

4 Robbers Routed, $200 In Safe Saved

Alertness of Patrolman John Murphy of Fields Corner station today saved $200, the week-end receipts of the Strand Theater, Columbia road, Dorchester.

Hearing a voice, Murphy ran to a rear alley in time to rout four men. They leaped a fence, leaving behind them a safe they had moved from the building.

Gordon Lavadore, theater manager, told police the safe held $200 and it was still intact when the safe was opened.

DEATH CRASHES — With Driver John E. Benson of East Boston fatally stricken with a heart attack, big truck smashes off road into fence and stops just before 15-foot plunge to railroad tracks at Charlestown Prison Point bridge today.

Maniac Stabs Gardner Nurse

GARDNER, May 8 (Herald)—Giroud, youthful attendant nurse at the State Hospital here, was seriously and perhaps fatally stabbed in the abdomen by an insane patient today.

Dr. Hardwell H. Flower, assistant state commissioner of mental health, said the patient obtained a knife from the kitchen where he had worked for many years and stabbed Giroud as the latter approached him.

proached him.

Dr. Frederick Moore, assistant superintendent, quoted the stabber as explaining he stabbed Giroud because the attendant "was a German and had been talking about me."

Giroud was placed on an operating table at the hospital at 7:15 and doctors worked four hours in an effort to save his life.

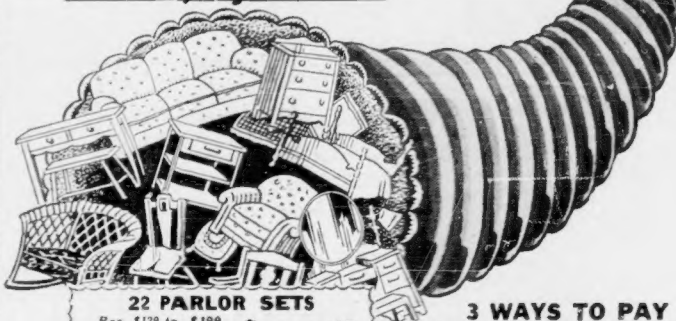

His condition was described as "critical."

Plays Reformatory As 'Crime School'

Conditions at Concord reformatory were scored again today in Suffolk superior criminal court by former Middlesex District Attorney Fred McMenimen, who described it as "no more than a school for crime."

McMenimen represented Leo Stickey, 18, of Tremont street, Charlestown, who was given two years for stealing an auto, six months for leaving the scene of an accident, six months for stealing registration plates, and one year for operating so to endanger.

"Please don't send this boy to Concord," McMenimen asked Judge Frederick W. Fodick. "in convicts' conditions there are not conducive to the moral reform of any youth."

Without comment, Judge Fodick ordered Stickey should serve his sentence concurrently in the house of correction.

Lawrence O'Brien, 26, of Concord street, Charlestown, arrested with Stickey after the two had been chased by police two miles over crowded streets at breakneck speed, during which shots were fired, was sentenced to two years for larceny of an auto.

Before O'Brien can begin that sentence, Judge Fodick ordered him to do a year for a previous larceny of an auto, which had been suspended.

"I want to be near home," O'Brien said when he was called to be sentenced; and he was ordered to the House of Correction.

HERE'S PUBLIC GARDEN'S NEW DUCK

Duck Nesting in Tree Near Gardens Lagoon

By HARRY SIMARD

Boston Evening American Staff Photographer

She didn't need to be able to put it in words. Her bright, alert eyes were eloquent enough.

She was asking me not to tell on her. And I won't.

At least, I won't betray the thing she wants kept secret. That's the exact location of the nest in which a mother wild duck is sitting on a hatch of eggs, near the Public Gardens lagoon.

Most ducks nest on the ground, usually at the edge of a pond. But this wild mother, who came winging up from the south to spend her summer in Boston, chose a unique spot to hatch her brood.

Her nest is in the crotch of a tree, about ten feet high. Now, don't ask me which tree. There are a lot of them in the Public Garden. Fortunately, there's no telling just how long ago the eggs were laid. So, of course, there's no telling, either how soon the baby ducks will peck their way out of their shells.

But the mother duck knows now that there's no harm in me or my camera. She's pretty proud, already, of her prospective family. And she'll be prouder still when they are paddling in her wake on the Public Garden lagoon, like a fleet of miniature tugs following an ocean liner.

So, from day to day, the mother duck and I will give you Boston Evening American readers photographic reports—from the nest in the tree!

If everything turns out all right we'll let you see, from start to finish, how a baby duck family comes into the world.

Seeing is Believing!

HERE'S AN INTERESTING CIGARETTE COMPARISON...

See how it's made by Al
Conklin of Dartmouth

Smokers all over the country are learning what A. R. Conklin (right) is showing a group of Dartmouth men. It's a striking way to compare cigarettes by simply watching them burn! Al is testing the leading brands to find the one that burns slowly. Which brand won? C-A-M-E-L... by a wide margin! The reason? Costlier tobaccos, expertly blended in a cigarette that burns slowly, completely—smokes cooler, of course!

Recently, a group of scientists ran this interesting laboratory test on a bigger scale. 16 of the largest-selling cigarette brands were rated impartially. CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR THE OTHER BRANDS. (Camels were remarkably consistent.) IN THE SAME TEST, CAMELS HAD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR ALL THE OTHER BRANDS.

Camel is the cigarette of costlier tobaccos... a cooler, milder, better-tasting smoke... every cigarette... every pack!

"Look how slowly the Camel burns compared to the other brands," Albert Conklin points out to the bunch. Everyone agrees that Camels win hands down. "No wonder Camels smoke so cool and mild," Al adds. "And that must have a lot to do with why Camels have such an appealing taste!"

Smoking is Believing!

WHEN you've enjoyed the thrill of a mellow, ripe-tasting Camel, you'll find that NOTHING can take the place of costlier tobacco. What a wonderful pleasure it is to get set with a cigarette that is really mild—a matchless blend, made to give you all the pleasure in smoking.

Camels have more tobacco by weight than the average of the 15 other brands tested. Besides, Camels burn slower than most of those other brands. And by burning slower than the average of the 15 other brands, Camels are the largest-selling brand. Camels are the equivalent of more cigarettes per pack.

Camels give you even more for your money when you count in Camel's finer, more expensive tobaccos. Buy shrewdly! Buy Camels... A shrewd choice for a luxury smoke every smoker needs.

Pope Urges World To Pray for Peace

Soothe Irritations of Bladder and Kidneys WITHOUT DRASTIC PILLS

And rest better at night.

When you have bladder and kidney troubles, you need a remedy that will soothe the irritation without the use of drastic pills. This is the only remedy that has been tested and proven to be the best for these troubles. It's the famous "Zemo" formula which has been used by doctors and beauty experts for years. The Pope's plea was made in a soft, consoling tone in case of any misunderstanding. He said that the world was in a state of confusion and that the only way to bring about peace was by universal prayer. He mentioned by inference the tension in the Mediterranean, saying that "neither the church nor the state nor the frame of arguments which shake the slimes" had been able to dissipate the "mystic plan" of those attending the congress.

The Pope again exhorted the world to pray for "the peace promised to me of good will peace in souls troubled by the appeals and seductions of false doctrines, peace among nations trembling in increasing anarchy."

He mentioned by inference the tension in the Mediterranean, saying that "neither the church nor the state nor the frame of arguments which shake the slimes" had been able to dissipate the "mystic plan" of those attending the congress.

Hopkins Hits Pessimists

WASHINGTON, Md., Feb. 24.—Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Smith today announced that he had approved a report of the U. S. Geological Survey that the estimated 1964 production of oil in the United States will be 1.5 billion barrels.

He talked at length to the conference today after the day's work meeting at Washington. He said his first impression was that the world was in a "very bad state of affairs."

They certainly spread a lot of gloom around town in the case of speakers at the annual Chamber of Commerce meeting.

There was an awful lot of pessimism and I do not refer to that school of thought. I feel it pretty bad reading and one of this pessimism is warranted by the improvement of business in a good many fronts.

Higher Export

The U.S. National Bank of Foreign Trade has reported a 10 per cent increase in the number of exports from Argentina, the latest volume of exports for the first quarter was 2,400,000 tons, or 174 per cent higher than the same period in 1968, but lower commodity exports recorded in export value of $411,000 or 21 per cent less.

Johnstown Is Class Nominated for Horse of Year Mass. Handicap

IT IS SELDOM that a great thoroughbred has lived up to advance predictions as did William Woodward's Johnstown in the winning of the Kentucky Derby.

Johnstown had been installed a 3 to 5 betting choice, and his running justified the faith the public had in him.

When Johnstown won the Derby, I wrote: "I have never seen a horse run so fast as Johnstown. He was without a peer. There was no horse in the world that was faster."

Woodward Horse

Wins in Britain

LONDON, May 8 (AP).—William Woodward's Hypocrite today won the Derby trial sweepstakes at Epsom, beating Mrs. Lionel Corbett's Britton by three lengths with J. A. Phillips Major Brakes third.

The trial was run over the Derby distance of a mile and a half, and Hypocrite's victory thus gives Woodward a good chance of winning both the Kentucky and Epsom derbies. Woodward's Britton won the Kentucky Derby last September.

The Grandstand Manager

THE BEES, Red Sox and Lou Gehrig are still attracting the most attention from those fans who are writing to "The Grandstand Manager."

Now that the weather man is acting a little better the fans will be able to attend more ball games, and will be able to air their views on the players through "The Grandstand Manager."

Limit your letters to 100 words each, with only one side of the paper. Mail all letters to "The Grandstand Manager," Boston Evening American, No. 5 Winthrop square, Boston.

Praise for Gehrig

We all hold a measure of sympathy in our hearts for Lou Gehrig, who, of his own free will, put a dramatic end to his startling record of playing consecutive games, a record that naturally will not be molested.

BEES SHOW CLASS

Everybody is saying that the improvement shown by the Bees this year is due to the new members of the squad, which the majority of the New England fans will consider this statement a true one. But one has to esteem many other changes in the team.

For instance, take Debs Garms, the new lead-off man. He has proved to us to be the best lead-off batter of the league. If you take a look at the "league leaders," you will notice that his name is with the leaders in runs scored, which is a record to be proud of.

LEO SPADA,
78 Chelsea st., East Boston.

I wonder if any of the present fans remember what to my mind was the best ball game ever played in Boston.

It was played when Ty Cobb was in full glory. The game was between Red Sox and Detroit. Joe Wood vs. Jean Luciani. First half of the twelfth, three on, no outs. Ty Cobb at bat and Detroit didn't score. Sox won, 1 to 0, in the twelfth.

Calls Bees Overrated

I, for one, have not been affected by this "Bee" fever that has been taking the Hub by storm. The Strenghtmen have been playing way over their heads. Give them time and they will be right at home in the second division. The team consists of a bunch of nice guys named Joe, that are fairly good defensively, but can't hit the size of their caps.

And don't be surprised when the so-called unbeatable pitching staff folds up on the road. The soup-bone sensations will not do so well in an average sized field, where the wind does not sweep down on the batter and the grass does not slow a hot grounder down to a dribble. They tell me that on a clear day the center field bleachers can be seen from home plate at the Hive.

Well, no hard feelings, you Bee Fans, and I'll see you at the World's Series at Fenway.

PAUL SPARKS,
Medford.

Likes Both Clubs

Why all the commotion as to the superiority of the Bees and Red Sox. Don't establish yourself as a traitor. Boston is fortunate to be represented by a club in both leagues. Let's stop fighting in our own yard and help our teams to ring up victories over their opponents.

Because we prefer one club to the other is no reason we can't support both. They represent our city and let's hope if we must argue on their supremacy it will be in the world series next fall.

JAMES M. GLENNON,
76 Westfield st., Dedham, Mass.

the first time, often get their initial tests at the Beehive.

The opposing manager must figure that Bees Field is the best spot for a rookie pitcher to display his wares. If this pitcher can twirl a good game at the local playground, he probably will gain the needed confidence to aid him in his future at the.

This occurred last Tuesday when Manager Ray Blades of the Cardinals sent in Bo Bowman to hurl his initial test in the majors, and, incidentally, has shown enough to warrant another start. If, on the other hand Bowman had been blasted by the Bees, he most likely, wouldn't have started another contest this season.

Bill Posedel also pitched his first game as a Bee at National League Field. So besides being the location of swell ball games, Bees Field also serves as the spot to test hopeful moundmen.

LOUIS LODI,
12 Skehan street, Somerville.

Cheer for Williams

Orchids aplenty to Rookie Ted Williams of the Red Sox for his swell showing last Thursday. Two homers, driving in five runs is nifty clouting.

I notice that those home runs came at the right times. The first one with Cronin on base scoring two runs, and the second circuit blow with Cronin and Fox on base accounting for three more runs. A dependable man at the old plate! With this kind of playing, the Red Sox will soon find themselves with a World Series on their hands!

LENNIE LERNER,
113 Crawford Street, Roxbury.

Bouquet for Lou

More about Lou Gehrig. Swell thing he did, benching himself. It must have hurt, but you got to hand it to him for being such a sport.

If it were some other player he would have remained around, but not Lou. He can take a hint. Here's hoping he has only the fondest memories.

How Can Every Ale Be the FINEST? the BEST?

We, the brewers of HACKER'S Ales, do not believe in exaggerated statements . . . Common sense tells us all ales cannot be best.

We pass on to you what others tell us: "HACKER'S does taste better." That is truly "word-of-mouth advertising."

GREYHOUND RECORDS OF WINTER SEASON

With the opening of greyhound racing at Revere less than a month away, the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser are presenting winter records of greyhound racing in Florida.

The first of this series appeared three Sundays back and then continued in the Boston Evening American. The purpose is to list the performances of about 350 greyhounds, including many old Revere favorites and several new "pups" who will make their debut at Wonderland this spring.

For those interested in racing these records will prove invaluable during the early weeks of racing. Clip them now and save for the opening. Back copies may be secured at the circulation department of the Boston Evening American, 3 Winthrop square.

Something new in sports hits Boston tonight when the Roller Derby begins. Margie Clifford, left, the Hollywood Stars, tests her new skates for the 21-day grind, while her team-mate, Kay Johnson, eagerly awaits the starting gun.

'Pures' of Three Cities Battle in Garden Ring

Tonight at the Garden the Irish-American A. A. will wind up the 1938-39 amateur boxing season when it offers one of the biggest and best intercity cards ever seen in Boston.

No effort has been spared to bring to the Hub the outstanding amateur pugilists from Albany and Philadelphia to swap punches with the "pick" of the New England A. A. A. U. ranks.

For this final show of the current season, the "Irish" will offer 18 contests in six classes of competition—118, 126, 147, 160 and 175 pounds and heavyweights. All boxers will report at the Garden at 5 o'clock this afternoon to weigh in, and the first bout will get under way at 8:30.

The invading teams from Albany and Philadelphia arrived in the Hub yesterday afternoon and hurried off to get a workout in one of the local gymnasiums.

All the boys are in excellent shape and are bent on proving their ring superiority over New England boxers.

Several of the visitors will be watched very carefully. In the bantamweight division there are William Speary of Philadelphia, three times National A. A. U. champion, the Quaker City lad having won his last title in the championships held in San Francisco last month.

Then there is Dom Peretti of Amsterdam, N. Y., a member of the Albany aggregation, who has three times won the National All-America championship at the weight.

In the 147-pound class there is Cory Storace of Rome, N. Y., another Albany standard-bearer who won the crown in "Frisco" last month, and in the middleweight class is Bradley Lewis of Albany, National A. A. U. champion in 1935.

Hollywood Stars Face Boston Team

Final practice whirls were taken today at the Boston Arena on the new track constructed for the Roller Derby which opens tonight at 8 o'clock and which will continue for 21 evenings, including Sundays.

Walter Brown, Boston Arena official who brought the Roller Derby to this city, insists that it is a thrill producer and that it will prove a magnet for crowds here as it has in other cities.

The favorite team of Joe Evans and Jeanne Goette was the first to check in at the Boston Arena. Evans, captain of Eleanor Powell's Hollywood Stars, who will race against the Boston White Shirts here, is considered one of the greatest roller skaters in the world.

The Roller Derby track is 18 laps to the mile. The banks are at a 35 degree angle, insuring some sensational performances at turns.

10 ON A TEAM

There are 10 skaters on each team, five young men paired with five young women. Doors open nightly at 7 o'clock, the skaters will take the track for practice and warmups at 7:30 o'clock and the race will start each night at 8 o'clock.

It concludes at 11 p. m. with a five minute "open house" session, during which the boys and the girls are on the track at the same time. Ordinarily they alternate with each other every 15 minutes.

Members of the two teams entered in the local race are:

 Tommy Atkinson
 Jack Ford
 George Gordon
 Ernie Donnelly

 Jeanne Goette

Dartmouth Nine Takes Lead in Eastern Loop

Dartmouth's sophomores seem to be taking up where the veterans left off last year in the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League.

With John Lendo and Gus Broberg as the main reasons, the Indians, 1938 champions, finally have passed Harvard to take the league lead.

Sophomore Lendo outpitched Yale's mound ace, Moe Jubitz, last Tuesday for a 9-3 victory that sent Dartmouth into a temporary tie with Harvard for first place. Then after the Crimson had pulled ahead again on Tom Healey's brilliant one-hit, 3-0 victory over Columbia on Wednesday, Sophomore Broberg batted out a 5-3 victory over Harvard Saturday to send Dartmouth into the undisputed lead.

With the season approximately at the halfway mark, Dartmouth has won five of its six games while Harvard has won five and lost two. Cornell stepped into prominence last week with three victories to take third place.

Harvard and Dartmouth play a return engagement at Cambridge next Saturday and that may settle the title race.
